Building A Bright Future.

Recently I have been to the builder's headquarters to interview Neil (building manager) for some information about the building work.

I spoke to him about how the building was designed...

"The school and the council discussed with the architect's and now in the future lots of pupils will be able to go to Earlham".

I also asked him when it will be finished...

The building will hopefully be finished by the end of next year.

I questioned him about how it will benefit future students...

It will hopefully make a better learning environment for students.

Lastly I asked him if everything is going as planned. If not why...

No, because when we were given the design of the school it was not what we thought it was going to look like when we saw the school, so we have had to slightly change our plans.

In my opinion I think the building will be finished on time and I am excited about how it will look. However I will not be in school when it finishes, though I think it will look brilliant and I am looking forward to the changes in the school.

Dancing sheep at the country fair!

Do you want to know where phase 4 went? Well let me tell you...

Phase 4 went on a dazzling trip to an extraordinary country show!

Nine fluffy sheep danced, one naughty sheep wagged his tail at me! Iqra Ali, a lovely girl, quoted, "I had a wonderful time, I even got to ride on a horse and carriage. Sadly, a very old sheep called Nobby would soon be extinct." (Turn over to the next page).

Don't worry, that's not all. There were even puppies which did tricks! "WOW! The doggies were so adorable. They were so many, if I suddenly took one they wouldn't have realized!" replied Fahima Gulied. If you don't like dogs then why not read about birds. They have all sorts of birds of prey. Some can even see in the dark, so go there in the night to see their eyes glow! Article by Zainab Ali.

A ROALD DAHL DAY SUCCESS!

On the 27th of October in Earlham Primary School all children and teachers dressed up as a Roald Dahl character, to raise money. We asked a few people in the school about this amazing day.

"The day was great fun and some of the teachers were looking Amazing but Mr Hart was the best" says Mr Hart.

Miss Malone says: "It was an opportunity for children to enjoy some of the best children stories by one of literatures best know writers. The day was a fun and enjoyable way for children to get up close and personal with their favourite Roald Dahl characters themselves! Money was raised in the dress up day for Princes Trust, so it was great being able to support such a wonderful charity"

Miss Robinson says "I found the idea from the internet, we raised £168.54p my favourite child that dressed up for the day was Alisha in year five because she dressed up as Miss Trunchball. My favourite character is Matilda because she has magical powers. Also Thank you for all the children and teachers that dressed up." Article by Marcia Da Silva.

BOOK OF THE MONTH – THE MAGIC FINGER

The magic finger is by Roald Dahl the number one kid's author. This amazing book is about a little girl who goes red all over, anger fills her mind and a flash comes out her finger. It curses the person who makes her angry.

This fabulous book is read by three special people, the members of this newspaper! They all have something to say. Khadijah commented, "It is brilliant for all ages. It is so good that I've read it five times over!" Marcia continued, "It's really magic!"

This story has a moral behind it that teaches everyone a lesson. It is also mythical to attract young people's attention. It's a short story that can be read in ten minutes.

This brilliant book is suitable for all ages so even if you're four or seventy four you can still read this book! Five people read this book so they scored this book five Earlhams out of five, FULL HOUSE! NOW THAT'S AMAZING! By Iman Shaikh.

IS THIS YOUR TEACHER?

Every month starting from today we are doing something called...IS THIS YOUR TEACHER?! Today's teacher is Mr.Gerry, and I was sent out to find out all about him! His favourite colour is blue and his favourite car is American Cadillac, his best friend before was Chris from many years ago and now it is Mr.Turner!

In his spare time he loves reading, his favourite author is Scott Fitzgerald and Ernest Hemingway, also his favourite book is the great Gatsby. Mr Gerry loves wearing jeans and a T-Shirt and to surprise you ...He said "the last thing I wanted to be was a teacher, however I am very happy that I became a teacher as it is so much fun and glad to be doing the job at Earlham!!"

The last thing I give you is a message from him:

"Work hard and Have fun!" Article by : Marcia Da Silva.
