

Complaints Procedure

Raising concerns and resolving complaints

From time to time parents, and others connected with the school, will become aware of matters which cause them concern. To encourage resolution of such situations the Local Governing Body/Trust/Board has adopted a "Complaints Procedure".

The procedure is devised with the intention that it will:

- Usually be possible to resolve problems by informal means
- Be simple to use and understand
- Be non-adversarial
- Provide confidentiality
- Allow problems to be handled swiftly
- Address all the points at issue
- Inform future practice so that the problem is unlikely to recur.

In order to resolve any complaints in a speedy and satisfactory way, parents should follow the following procedure:

a) Stage 1 – Informal

The complaint is dealt with by an appropriate staff member or designated Stage 1 Complaints Officer (who is not the subject of the complaint).

In the vast majority of cases, a concern can and should be resolved by contacting the appropriate member of staff. This may be the subject teacher, head of year, form tutor or other designated staff member directly involved with the reported problem.

The initial communication from the complainant to the member of staff may be by letter, telephone conversation or in person by appointment. The complainant must allow the designated staff member at least 5 days to respond to the concern.

If this does not lead to a resolution of the problem then the concern/complaint must be referred to the next stage of the process which is the commencement of the formal process.

b) Stage 2 – Talk to a member of the Leadership Team

This can only happen if you have been through Stage One. The school office will arrange for you to meet with a senior member of staff, who will investigate the complaint. The school will then write to you within five working days of the meeting setting out its response. It is hoped that the decision will satisfy you. However if you cannot accept what the school says, then go to Stage Three.

Stage 3 – Formal (if unresolved at Stage 2)

The complaint is heard by the Head Teacher.

If the complainant is dissatisfied with the response from the member of staff at Stage 2 they should be advised to put their complaint in writing to the Head Teacher who will deal with it formally at Stage 3. (Where the Head Teacher is the subject of the complaint, the complainant should be advised to address it to the Chair of Governors. If the complaint is being dealt with by the Chair of Governors this will bypass Stage 3 and go to Stage 4 of the formal procedure and heard by the Chair of Governors or other appropriate person.)

The complainant must ensure that they include details of why they are still dissatisfied and what action they would like to resolve the complaint. They can also attach any evidence to support their concerns.

The Head Teacher must acknowledge the complaint within 5 days by writing to the complainant. The acknowledgement should state a further communication will follow, within 20 school days that will set out the actions taken to investigate the complaint and the findings.

Once satisfied that the investigation has been concluded and a decision has been reached, the Head Teacher must notify the complainant in writing of the conclusion and any actions that will be taken as a result. The decision can be communicated by the Head Teacher to the complainant in writing or, if they may feel it appropriate, meet with them first to communicate their findings and then confirm in writing afterwards.

The complainant must also be informed if they are still dissatisfied with the outcome they can write to the Chair of Governors or other appropriate person outlining why they are still unhappy.

a) Stage 4 – Formal (if not resolved at stage 3)

The complaint is heard by the Chair of Governors or other appropriate person for academies and free schools (this will be delegated to the vice-chair or other nominated governor/person if appropriate).

If the complainant is dissatisfied with the response from the Head Teacher at Stage 3 they should be advised to put their complaint in writing to the Chair of Governors or other appropriate person for academies or free schools for consideration at Stage 4 of the procedure.

The complainant must ensure that they include details of why they are still dissatisfied with the decision, the recommendations and actions of the Stage 3 complaint and what they require to resolve the matter. They may also attach any evidence to support their concerns that can be additional to that submitted at Stages 1 to 3.

The Chair of Governors must write to the complainant within 5 days of receipt of the complaint to acknowledge this. The letter should state that another letter will follow within 20 school days setting out the actions taken to investigate the complaint and the findings.

The Chair of Governors will look at all the information pertaining to the complaint submitted by the complainant and the investigatory evidence by the school at Stages 1 to 3. The Chair may want to talk with the complainant or investigating staff members to establish facts and obtain further information.

Stage 5 – Formal (if not resolved at Stage 4)

The complaint is heard by the Local Governing Body or other appropriate school body in academies or free schools. This is the final stage of the process.

If the complainant is dissatisfied with the response from the Chair of Governors (or Vice-Chair) at Stage 4 they should be advised that the next stage is to put their complaint in writing to the School Local Governing Body at Stage 5.

The complainant must ensure that they include details of why they are still dissatisfied with the decision of the Chair, recommendations and actions of the Stage 4 complaint and what they feel would resolve the matter. They can also attach any evidence to support their concerns in addition to that submitted at Stages 1 to 4.

The complaint will be acknowledged within 10 school days.

The complaint is considered by a panel of Governors who form a complaints appeal panel. The panel must be independent and impartial. No governor may sit on the panel if they have had a prior involvement in the complaint or in the circumstances surrounding it. The panel must have a cross-section of categories of governors and sensitive to the issues of race, gender and religious affiliation. If appropriate the panel can be made up of governors from another school. Complaints should not be shared with the whole Local Governing Body, except in very general terms

The panel must convene a meeting to discuss the complaint and all the investigation evidence to make a final decision on how to progress. A clerk should be appointed to take notes of the meeting and records must be kept.

The head teacher has a statutory duty for the internal organisation and management of the school, which they must carry out in accordance with any rules, regulations or policies laid down by the Local Governing Body. Therefore the remit of governors' consideration of a complaint about a matter of internal organisation and control will be as to whether the head teacher has followed any relevant school policies; it is not to substitute its own operational judgement for that of the head teacher.

The panel can decide:

- To convene a meeting with the complainant. If a meeting is to be convened, the person chairing the meeting either the Chair or Vice-chair (whomever did not deal with the complaint at Stage 4), will write to the complainant to acknowledge the complaint within 10 school days. The letter would also include the date, time and venue of the convened meeting to hear the complaint.
- Decide on the appropriate action to be taken to resolve the complaint
- For non-complex complaints, not to meet with the complainant, but to use all the information available to them and make a decision on the complaint as there is enough information to allow for a decision to be made.

Possible outcomes for the Panel

- Dismiss the complaint in whole or in part
- Uphold the complaint in whole or in part
- Recommend changes to school systems or procedures to ensure that similar do not occur

All stage 4 and 5 complaints will be reviewed by the CEO of the Eko Trust to ensure that procedures have been followed in dealing with the complaint.
